Conveyancing Seminar 2018

Conveyancing Update and New Developments What you need for your conveyancing practice in 2018

About this seminar

Join well-known conveyancing specialist presenter, Allen West, for this indispensable overview of the latest developments in the conveyancing field. Amendments to legislation, recent case law and the resolutions taken at the 2017 Registrar's Conference and their application to Conveyancing and Notarial practice and procedure, will be covered.

No conveyancer can afford to practise in 2018 without attending this seminar. Practitioners who do not familiarise themselves fully with the changes risk the possible rejection of deeds and documents, resulting in dire consequences for them and for their clients.

Who should attend?

This seminar is a must for all conveyancers. Your conveyancing secretary, paralegal and candidate attorney assisting you in the day-to-day conveyancing practice will also benefit from attending this seminar.

Presenter

ALLEN WEST was the Chief of Deeds Training from 1 July 1984 to 30 September 2014 and is currently a property law consultant at Tonkin Clacey in Pretoria. He is the co-author of numerous books on conveyancing, has published more than 150 articles in leading law journals, and regularly posts articles on Ghost Digest and LinkedIn. From its inception until September 2014, West was the editor of the South African Deeds Journal.

West is a lecturer extra-ordinary at the University of Pretoria and a moderator and consultant of conveyancing subjects at Unisa. He has presented courses for the LSSA (LEAD) since 1984 and has served on the following boards: Sectional Title Regulation Board, Deeds Registries Regulation Board and Conference of Registrars, as well as numerous other related committees.

West obtained his qualifications from Unisa and has also studied at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in the USA.
